BUSINESS

2. LAYC Dances

Participants thoroughly enjoyed this dance. Add a different type of coat check system for LAYC cards; a bucket to keep them in instead of a bag. All inappropriate dancing, regardless of participant gender, will be addressed at the dance. Chair Casas will be reviewing the LAYC Dance rotation schedule for staff and Youth Commissioners

3. School Outreach/Commission Outreach Program

Tabled to February meeting.

4. Teen Spring Program

Commissioners Beck and Baney will lead the group with a Teen Scavenger Hunt and movie night on April 2 at 2 PM. More information at the January meeting.

5. Teen Friendly Business

Set a new timeline. Plaque and award will be reviewed for the committee before the February 7 Youth Commission Meeting. The committee will present the award to the business before the March 7 Meeting

6. Joint PARC Meeting

Rescheduled to Monday, February 7 at 6 pm in the Neutra House

7. Los Altos Hills Youth Commission Event

Commission is interested in the May 20 event with LAH. Liaison will send notice to the LAH liaison. Youth Commission would also like to extend to work with the LAH commission at the March 4 LAYC dance.

8. Youth Commission Updates

None.

9. Upcoming Teen Programs and Special Events

January 29 is the Teen Ski Trip to Homewood. Price is $85 for participants ages 13-18. Los Altos has filled all 15 spots and there are 5 more available. Sign ups due by Friday, January 21.
